WASHINGTON, March 4.—(BUP)—The United States has offered to set a ceiling price of $1.80 a bushel on wheat exported under a proposed long-term wheat pact, today.

These sources said the offer is contingent upon agreement by importing nations to take more wheat under the pact than they buy now. The $1.80 price was proposed to break a five-week deadlock between exporters and importers at the 10-nation wheat conference.

The reported offer amounts to a drop of 20 cents a bushel from the ceiling price written into last year's agreement which never was ratified by the U.S. Congress. That agreement was signed at a time when wheat was scarce.

Importing nations were said to have given up a battle after the compromise price offer was made at a closed-door meeting yesterday. But there was no such concession. The U.S. would accept it. The importing nations, including Britain, have been arguing for an even lower ceiling price in view of the increased wheat supply of wheat.

The $1.80 ceiling might require the government to pay subsidies of up to $100,000 to ship the wheat under the agreement during the first year.

SEEK STEADY MARKET
But the United States and other exporters want to get a wheat pact now as accurate as a disintegrator market under stable price controls.

The proposed pact would set a price floor as well as a price ceiling. The proposed pact would set a price floor as well as a price ceiling.

The mystery began when a member of the Manitoba Camera Club, P. J. Morgan, asked T. G. White, superintendent of public parks, where the statue had come from.

White went through dusty city files and found that the statue was moved to the park from the city hall grounds in 1903.

NEW YORK, March 4.—(CP)—The transfer of 80 United States destroyers to Britain in 1940 was the "utmost service" to Britain, Winston Churchill writes in his war memoirs.

That act, he says, "brought the United States definitely nearer to us than the war."

In the general volume of his memoirs, Churchill writes that the transfer "was the first of a long succession of increasingly important acts... which were of the utmost service to us."

He marked the passage of the United States from being neutral to being unsundered.

INVASION FEARED
The destroyers were given to Britain in September, 1940, the month in which Churchill says he had feared a Nazi invasion.

He writes that the transfer would, "according to all the standards of history, have justified the German government in declaring war upon the United States."

The deal was first proposed by a member of Churchill's government in August, 1940, he writes; it was to have been a trade in which the United States would receive bases in the West Indies and Bermuda.

Though he believed the bases were worth more than the destroyers, Churchill says he also felt "that the survival of Britain is bound up with the survival of the United States."

Before the deal was completed, Churchill says, only by the suggestion that the bases be turned over to the United States on 90-year lease basis.

In the current instalment of his memoirs, Churchill writes that the transfer was "the first of a long succession of increasingly important acts... which were of the utmost service to us."

Early literature refers to use of milk by the Egyptians, Greeks and Romans.

Season Tickets For City Course

Mayor Announces Parks Board Request Turned Down

Season tickets will be issued this year for the Municipal Golf course.

Mayor Harry Ainlay stated today there would be no change in policy.

Parks department officials requested the discontinuance of season tickets because of abuse by certain holders.

Delegation of Municipal Golf Club members yesterday made representations to city commissioners against the discontinuance, and were successful in obtaining commitment from them that no change in policy would be made.

However, the season tickets to be issued this year will carry a cancellation clause. This clause will permit cancellation for infringement of golfing etiquette or other misconduct.

Chief complaint registered by parks department officials was that season ticket holders considered they had priority over patrons paying single-round green fees.

Other abuses of the season ticket were: monopolizing of certain greens for practice purposes, and the arbitrary "putting in" on other players.

POST-WAR PILOTS HERE

First pilots trained under the RCAF's post-war flying program to be stationed at North West Air Command arrive here yesterday for posting to 432 Squadron.

The two, PO E. L. Arnold of Hope, B.C., and PO R. Anderson of Lethbridge, Sask., were included in the recent graduation class of air crew at Trenton, Ont.

Squadron 432 is now flying the northern supply route to the RCAF's arctic outposts.

Second oldest member on the bench here, Mr. Justice Ford was born in Toronto and was first admitted to the bar at the age of 23 and for a time after that served as secretary to the premier of Ontario.

Prior to his arrival in Edmonton in 1910, Mr. Justice Ford was deputy attorney-general of Saskatchewan.

A past chancellor of the University of Alberta, Mr. Justice Ford was appointed to appellate division of the Supreme Court in 1936.

Alcoholic beverages are on the main again.

Edmonton Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada recently voted "strongest disapproval" of all publicity given to "all kinds of wines, beer and hard liquors."

Specifically, disapproval was "unanimously registered" against the "increasing number of, and space devoted to misleading (and often scientifically proven false) advertising" of intoxicating drinks.

Also under fire is the "unwarranted use in which home-makers are urged to use wines, rum and brandy in cookery recipes in magazines published by the home."

Five-Count On Last End Takes Title

PEACE RIVER, March 4. — W. E. Boyd, trophy, emblematic of the North Peace curling championship Wednesday found a new resting place for the next year. In a dramatic and most unexpected twelfth and the McLennan entry down three on the eleventh to the Fairview entry, picked off a four-point lead, making the final score read 3-4.

The playoff between McLennan and Fairview came as a result of a tie in the playdowns and both risks curled superbly, with Fairview skip Perry having the edge on Jones of McLennan. With McLennan living three to tie, Perry had a strong duck layout and the packed rink did not give McLennan a chance.

However, as soon as delivery was made off the broom and too fast for the knee line, it was obvious the rock would slide harmlessly by Jones with his last rock carefully drew down with just sufficient weight to push out Fairview's only stone in the house and received well merited applause.

In the four years of this competition it was Peace River, Fairview, Brevin and now McLennan that secured possession.

Personnel of McLennan entry was Jones (skip), Hahlik (second), Erickson (third), Carley (lead).

Along with the trophy goes the "Oscar" donated each year by the Victory hotel and a new set of curling rocks, which become the property of the club winning the championship.

Sweeping Makes Rock Go Farther

KILLAM, March 4. — Question as to how much farther a swept curling rock goes than an unswept stone, has at least been settled to the satisfaction of Len Quinlan.

The experiment was one of the attractions at the Entertainment Centre in Killam last week-end. Len's estimate was 1 foot, 4 1/2 inches, which was just a inch short of the experimenter's figure.

Quinlan ranged from 1 inch to 30 feet.

La Starza - New Champ?

Bronxite Only Outstanding Young Heavyweight Boxer

By Jack Cuddy
NEW YORK, March 4.—(BU)—As Joe Louis hangs up his gloves, is there any youngster in the world who soon may succeed him as a great heavyweight champion?

We know but one—Roland La Starza of the Bronx. Unbeaten La Starza, winner of 20 straight professional bouts, will be ready to shoot for the title this year. He should be capable then of wrestling the crown from its temporary possessor—Edward Charles, Lee Savold, Jersey Joe Walcott or the like.

Since this remarkable boxer has only 21 now, his reign may be long. And it may be glorious because of his punch, skill and clean living.

STILL IN BACKGROUND
La Starza hasn't attracted much national publicity yet because he is being "brought along slowly" by manager Jimmy De Angelis. He'll command plenty of attention next fall when Jimmy begins to "move him up" and match him with all comers. De Angelis said yesterday, "Roland will be ready for a title shot in June, 1949."

Last Friday night, La Starza stopped Gino Buono of Italy in the sixth round at Madison Square Garden. He floored the barrel-chested visitor from Bari, Italy, three times during the scrap. Buono, 27, and more experienced, out-weighted the youngster, 204 pounds to 188. Buono is no contender. Nevertheless, he suffered only one serious defeat during two years of campaigning in the United States. Lee Savold of Paterson, N.J., was rocked back to prominence last March 12 by his second-round knockout victory over Buono. It was the fastest main-event kayo in Garden history.

Buono, who had been a 31 favorite over Savold, claimed afterward that blood had clouded his "cold" and Gino took no chances on being "cold-cooked" Friday night by the beautifully built, black-haired Bronx youngster who already had belted out 24 opponents.

EXPERTS LIKE HIM
Experts just for fighting flesh like Joe Woodman, former manager of Sam Langford and "Dumb" Doc Morgan, exploit of champions Jack Britton and Battling Levinsky, shared young Roland as a future champion many months ago. They pointed out to all who would listen that La Starza has "the fighting body." He stands five feet 10½ inches, and is still growing. He towers down, like Maxie Baer, from unusually broad, powerful shoulders. But he is a much more skillful boxer than was Maxie, and he's a straighter puncher. And his reactions are much sharper.

Roland is more consistent and persistent than young Bernie Reynolds of Fairfield, Conn.—another good prospect. La Starza is the only young heavy we know who is on the stairway to the stars.

Hogan Undergoes Lung Operation
EL PASO, Tex., March 4.—(AP)—Professional golfer Ben Hogan was operated on early last night to relieve a blood clot in his lung. Operation was performed by Dr. C. O. Schaefer, New Orleans specialist who flew here yesterday. After the surgery Dr. Schaefer said Hogan would "completely recover" and he should be "up and around within a few months."

Hogan was badly injured in an automobile accident near Van Nuys, Calif., Feb. 25. Since then he has been in hospital. Blood clot developed on his lung Wednesday night. It was reported a previous blood clot had been reported in one of the golfer's legs.

"DO OUR JOB" AND WIN TITLE SAYS MACK
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 4.—(AP)—Connie Mack thinks his Philadelphia Athletics can win the 1949 American League pennant "if we all do our job."

The 65-year-old club manager made the prediction at a training camp press talk. "We're all here to do a job," Mack said. "If we all do our job, we all do our job then we can be American league champions."

Connie hasn't been to camp in nearly 20 years. The last time he was on the bench was in 1931.

L. Marshall Wins, Loses In Shuttle
MONTREAL, March 4.—(CP)—The semi-finals of the men's singles in the Canadian badminton championships turned into an all-weather affair last night as one Winnipeg and two Toronto players survived a grueling quarter-final round.

Seal Training Den Beckons Two Edmonton Ballplayers

THE southern sun is shining on the pleasant training scene in baseball camps across the United States this day. And tonight two Edmonton juniors will fly off into the blue yonder on the way to the diggings of the San Francisco Seals.

The pair—Don Wynn and Johnny Miller—were selected last night by manager Marvin Miller to join the Seals' camp under the arrangement between the Seattle and San Francisco organizations which allows two Seals kids to work out with the Pacific Coast league team every spring.

EVERYTHING IS ARRANGED
Yesterday Miller contacted president George Graham of the Seals by telephone and lined out final details for the jaunt. The Seals camp opened earlier this week and will continue until March 18, meaning that Wynn and Clark will have 10 days or better to absorb the tutelage of manager Lefty O'Doul and other notables on the Seals club.

Wynn and Clark were the mainstays in South Side's bid for the pennant in 1948. Athletics finished second in the league race and were bumped in the first-round playoffs by CNR.

Wynn, a four-year man in junior baseball locally, was a Jack-of-all-trades. On the days he wasn't pitching, he was in the catcher's box at first base and wound up being named to the Bulletin All-Star team for that position. He is a freestyle swimmer.

A NICE START
Last season was Clark's first in baseball. He finished the season with a .316 batting mark and a reputation for being pretty solid in his coverage of second base.

The pair can credit Wally Aldridge, former South Side manager, with having more than a little to do with their opportunity to practice with the Seals, a triple club in 1947 Aldridge capped the deal which saw two South Siders to Frisco every spring. Last year Vern Cullinan, Bob Coughlin, of Poncha Stadium, attended the camp.

Miller wasn't sure Thursday how his progress would do. But he was positive that they are two of the best prospects in the junior league and he won't be surprised if "Wynn" winds up with a contract in class C or B baseball.

Bombers Dicker For New Coach
TORONTO, March 4.—(CP)—The Globe and Mail in a sports page story said it had learned reliably that Bob Mattern, University of Togo rugby coach, has been offered the job as coach of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

It was reported that Mattern was offered a two-year contract of $500 per season. The University of Toronto athletic director must first determine whether Mattern could match such an offer but no statement was issued.

Arthur Chipman, past president of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, said he was telephoning Mattern, who is favored for keeping Jack West as Blue Bombers coach for another year, but that he understood the Bombers executive has been negotiating with Mattern.

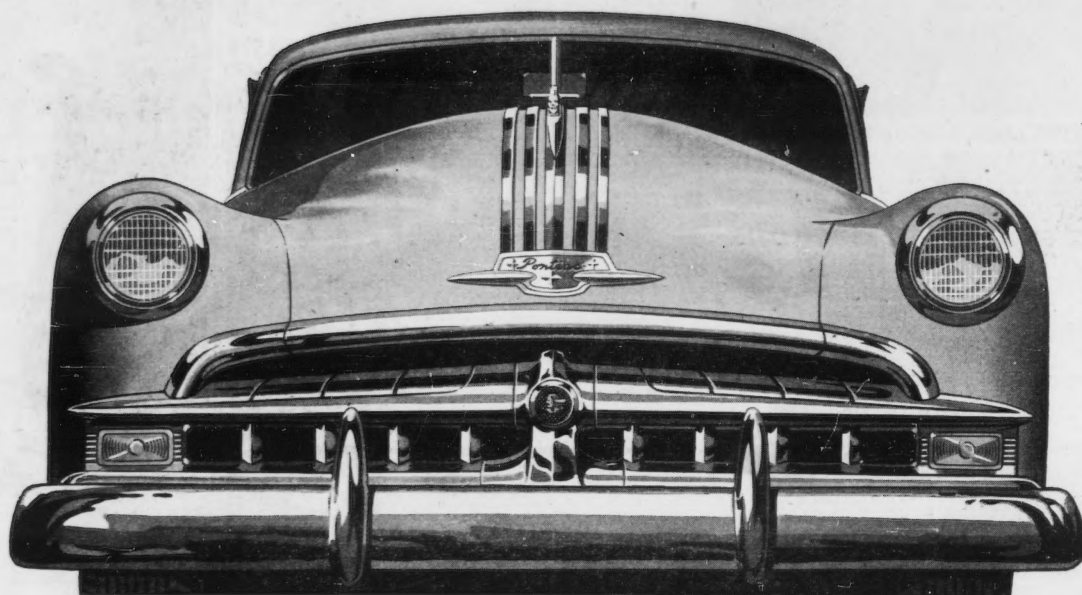

The moth of the all-stars has lost the ability to fly and is completely dependent upon his feet for survival.

Butcher Boy Higgins will referee the main event and semi-final while Cecil (love that rascal!) Goldstick will keep 'em grunting in the prelim.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Don't Be Critical
If Short of Dates

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a 19-year-old girl and there is something I can't understand—that is, why I am not popular with the boys.

Other girls, no better looking than I am, have plenty of dates. I know that looks don't count, but just why is it that I don't make a hit with the boys?

I am very particular about the kind of boys I go with and I have not as yet found one who has all the characteristics that I want in a boy.

I would like to marry a minister. They aren't perfect either, but they are something about them that I like.

And I want a very extra-special fellow for my very own. How can I get more attention from the opposite sex?

ANSWER: Well, Junior, you know the old saying is that beggars shouldn't be choosers, and perhaps the reason that you do not have any boy friends is because you are too hard to please.

Popularity is contagious, so to speak. The girls who have many dates have always more dates than they can handle, but the girls who have only one date generally lose that.

Have you pulled many fine personalities out of the crowd? Have you made a list of the boys you like? Have you tried to get to know them better? Have you tried to get to know them better?

Party Farewells
Should Be Brief

One way to show your consideration for a hostess is to depart with a minimum of fuss and bother.

A brief exchange of farewells allows a hostess to return quickly to other guests.

Since if you are the last guest to leave, the chances are that a third hostess doesn't want to be bothered with the farewells for any longer than she has to be.

If you feel the urge to chat with your hostess while she is saying good-bye, curb the impulse and save what you have to say for a telephone call the next day.

You will be calling her anyway to thank her for the hospitality.

Don't be the kind of guest who says that she must leave but does not get going for another half hour.

During the time that elapses between going and saying that you must go you are almost certain to be a distraction to your hostess.

She will be obliged to keep an eye upon you so as to be ready to see you depart when you finally make up your mind to go.

If you leave a party before other guests do, it is polite to leave with out farewells or flowers or even "good-byes" said to other guests.

The idea of giving quietly is that if you do, you are making an effort not to break up a party.

One-half of our foreign population has resided in the United States 20 years or more.

A party shell, made with extra, filled with appearance, then nestled with grateful cheer, is just a new form. It should be loved in the even just long enough to tell the cheer, and served hot. For a party (last), mercuries may replace the cheer.

Drew Says Tory Program Possible at Lower Taxes

OTTAWA, March 4.—(CP)—George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, today told his weekly press conference the Progressive Conservative program for health and social welfare could be operated on a "very substantial" decreased rate of taxation.

He said this was evident from the fact that at the moment the government was collecting taxes at the rate of about $600,000,000 a year in excess of budget requirements. Critics of the Progressive Conservative program, he said, failed to take into consideration the fact that it contemplated a contributory system of health and welfare services, with federal and provincial governments, as well as employees and potential beneficiaries, participating.

"No issue was questioned on a number of subjects and too reporters. He was not bothered personally by any of the questions or by the members of the committee but thought it took something away from the dignity of parliamentary procedure."

Churchill Still Head U.K. Tory

LONDON, March 4.—(CP)—Winston Churchill emerged from a daylong Conservative party meeting last night firmly entrenched as the party leader.

Conservative members of parliament held an inquiry on their lack of success in recent by-elections. There had been published reports that Churchill would come under fire. Apparently these reports were not true.

One observer said junior Conservative members of parliament were the party's saviour, not just something but policy. They were making statements on what the Conservatives would do on major issues such as nationalization of industry.

8 Blockaded Russians Roar Out of U.S. Zone

By Brack Curry
FRANKFURT, March 4.—(AP)—Eight angry Russian soldiers ran down the Red flag over the Russian repatriation mission headquarters today and roared off to the Soviet zone of Germany in a motor convoy.

The Russians were infuriated as they left the building in which they had been blockaded for two days by American military police. One Russian truck driver said as he left the mission grounds: "The story of the line between Russia and Germany is being written in Berlin to the disadvantage of the United States occupation zone."

But Russian authorities struck back quickly. They ordered mass arrests of American soldiers and civilians in the mission zone.

The eight men had been waiting in their quarters for two days. They were blockaded by the United States army after they had been ordered to leave the mission zone.

Three-Day Drama Meet Opens In South Monday

CALGARY, March 4.—(CP)—Two Edmonton and two Calgary drama groups will compete for provincial honors in the annual, three-day Alberta regional drama festival opening here Monday.

The Calgary groups will present two three-act plays while players from the University of Alberta have entered four one-act plays. The festival will enter the drama festival at Toronto starting April 25.

DIFFICULT PLAY
The festival will open Monday evening with presentation by Workshop 14 of Calgary of Erik Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler." The three-act play portraying the story of a woman's rebellion with jealousy who destroys the life work of the man she loves, is believed to be one of the most difficult plays ever attempted by a amateur group in Canada.

Max Knight, winner of the best actress award in the Alberta festival last year and whose work with the group from the previous year's drama festival has been in the play, the leading role of Hedda is played by Dorren.

Another group, the University of Alberta, will present "The White Man and the Mountain" by R. H. G. Orchard.

The Edmonton Community Theatre will take over the stage Wednesday to present four one-act plays.
